

Dear DeviceAnywhere Users,

We've got some great news for you as we sprint through summer. Teaming up with Forum Nokia, we've launched the new Forum Nokia Virtual Developer Lab (VDL). This new Nokia VDL includes 40 devices from among Nokia's most popular handsets.

This month 7 new devices were added to both France and German packages, and 10 new devices for the UK in addition to those for the US!

For more exciting DeviceAnywhere news, and to see the full list of new and upcoming handsets, please read on!

DeviceAnywhere Launches the Forum Nokia VDL

San Mateo, July 8, 2008, DeviceAnywhere unveiled the new Forum Nokia Virtual Developer Lab (VDL). The Forum Nokia VDL supports the most popular Nokia devices running on Series 40 and Series 60 platforms. Click here to read our release!!

AT&T Offers a Special Promotion - 30 Hours Free!

There's still time left to take advantage of this offer! AT&T is offering a promotion to DeviceAnywhere users of the AT&T VDL package. The first 300 DeviceAnywhere customers that sign up will receive a full rebate on 30 hours of usage in the AT&T package! Customers will receive a maximum of 10 free hours per month, for a maximum of 30 total hours, from now until December 31, 2008.

For more information about this promotion, or to sign up, please send an email to promotions@deviceanywhere.com, with "AT&T" in the subject line. Note that this offer is valid for all DeviceAnywhere customers, but you must subscribe to the AT&T package.

DeviceAnywhere in the News!

SMS Text News of the UK has taken up the banner to demonstrate DeviceAnywhere offerings to select UK developers. Their first stop was with Mark Tynan of ShopQwik. To see the video, click here.

"With the free iPhone 2.0 Software Update, your iPhone does even more. Extend its capabilities with innovative applications you download directly from the new App Store. Get push email, calendar, and contacts from your Microsoft Exchange server at work. And use great new features in Mail, Contacts, and other applications. To get the free update, just sync your iPhone with your Mac or PC." -- Quoted from Apple store

DA Tips and Tricks

Did you know DeviceAnywhere Studio allows you to press and hold down a key? This action may be useful in powering on or off a device. To hold down a key on the device, hold down the shift key. Then press the button you want to hold down on the device. The button is released when you release the shift key.
